

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
OF EQUINE PRACTITIONERS (AAEP)
Educational Pamphlet Series

The American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP) has produced an outstanding series of equine educational pamphlets. The educational pamphlet series is an outstanding source of equine information on many subjects, written by equine veterinarians for the horse owner.

The following titles are now available:

- Colic – Understanding The Digestive Tract And Its Function
- Cool Semen Transport – Advancements In Equine Artificial Insemination
- Dental Care – The Importance Of Maintaining The Health Of Your Horse's Mouth
- Emergency Care – Guidelines To Follow During Equine Emergencies
- Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis (EPM)
- Euthanasia – The Most Difficult Decision
- Equine Infectious Anemia – The Only Protection Is Prevention
- Expectant Mare – Assuring The Health And Well-Being Of The Pregnant Mare
- Fescue In The Horse's Diet – Minimizing the Risk to Your Horse's Health
- Foal Growth – Special Care and Nutrition
- Foaling And Newborn – Preparing For A Safe And Successful Foal Delivery
- Hay Quality & Horse Nutrition
- Immunizations – Protect Your Horse Against Contagious Diseases
- Lameness Exams – Evaluating The Lame Horse
- Laminitis – Prevention And Treatment
- Older Horse – Special Care and Nutrition
- Overweight Horse – Special Care and Nutrition
- Parasite Control – Waging War On Equine Parasites
- Purchase Exams – A Sound Economic Investment
- Understanding Equine Insurance – Guidelines You Should Consider

To order copies of these pamphlets:

AAEP
4075 Iron Works Pike
Lexington, KY 40511
Phone - 859-233-0147 or 800-443-0177
FAX -859-233-1968
Visit their web site – myhorsematters.com

PLEASE NOTE: A complete set of the AAEP pamphlets was sent to the attention of the CCE Educator/Staff with 4-H Horse Program responsibilities in every county.

*Jean T. Griffiths
Extension Horse Specialist
Department of Animal Science
Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853*